"More enduringly than any other sport, wrestling teaches self-control and pride. Some have wrestled without great skill—none have wrestled without pride."

Dear Wildcat Wrestlers—

You all know that this has been my first season with the Wildcats, and I just wanted to say that it's been an incredible season! I'm very grateful to be part of the Louisburg wrestling tradition, and I'm excited to see what great things are ahead of us.

One thing that I love about coaching wrestling is the competitive attitude that develops in the practice room. This attitude is essential for a strong program, and it's not easy to build it. A program needs to invest in it and dig deep to discover it. The important thing to remember is that a strong work ethic will be contagious. Once the bug hits a few guys in the practice room, it spreads throughout the squad.

Some of you have begun to discover the benefits of off-season work, while others have committed to it for a long time now. You have the options of the Louisburg Kids Wrestling Club, Freestyle and Greco-Roman tournaments, Purler Academy sessions, and all sorts of summer camps. I strongly encourage you to get involved in off-season wrestling. The vast majority of state champions have not only wrestled Folkstyle, but also Freestyle and Greco-Roman at the national level. College summer camps are fantastic opportunities, whether it's a small satellite camp, Ft. Hays State, Baker, or Division I university. These off-season opportunities provide an environment for growth that is free of pressure from your high school coaches, that is enjoyable and memorable, and that fosters motivation to succeed and inspiration to win

Whether you're a captain or not, senior or underclassman, you know that you have a great influence on younger wrestlers and youth wrestlers. You have a sense of brotherhood where you look out for one another. You help your brothers when they fall by the wayside. You are your brothers' keepers

I love this sport because it truly prepares you for success in life. Wrestling prepares you for the inescapable features of toil and pain that are present in the everyday workplace. It teaches you to persevere through the blood, sweat, and tears of life. As a wrestler, you'll be proud to show off your subtle badges of honor, whether it's a scar, a broken bone, or cauliflower ears.

To all the moms and dads, grandparents, siblings, and everyone else who supported us this season, thank you for everything you've done for the program. Louisburg truly is a special place and I'm proud to be a part of the Wildcat Wrestling program.

To all the wrestlers, thank you for your hard work and the great memories this season. Next year, we'll build on this season's success and make a run for the top!

To the seniors, you are a fantastic group of leaders who have set a great example for the younger wrestlers. This season, you racked up 83 wins, 29 pins, and 491.5 team points. You won 15 medals, 9 of which were gold medals, and you outscored your opponents by 635 match points to 232 points. You will definitely be missed, but I want to encourage you to stay as involved as possible. If you're not going on to wrestle at the next level, think about becoming an official or a coach. Our sport needs fine young men like you!

I'm excited for next season, and for the many great seasons that will follow! Louisburg wrestling is beginning a new tradition, a legacy that will last for many years to come.

—Coach Bovaird
