“ONCE YOU’VE WRESTLED,
EVERYTHING ELSE IN LIFE IS EASY.” — DAN GABLE

Dear Wildcat Wrestlers—

Thomas Edison once said, “Many of life’s failures are people who did not realize how close they were to success when they gave up.” On the surface, our season ended with disappointment as we walked away from the regional tournament without a single state qualifier. However, I can’t help but marvel at the foundation you all have been laying this past season. This is a team of resilient and tenacious student-athletes, and I couldn’t be more proud of you all.

We have seen many ups and downs this year, but you all have bonded and followed through on your commitment to build Louisburg Wrestling into something special.

To the seniors, thank you for the dedication you’ve given the program and for the outstanding leadership you’ve provided the younger wrestlers. You all have stood together, bleeding and sweating every day. You’ve stood strong when others have turned their backs and quit. You’ve done your part to lay the foundation for an outstanding future for the Louisburg Wildcats wrestling program. This season, you racked up 39 wins, 22 pins, and 218 team points, and you won 10 tournament medals. Whether you’re a four-year wrestler or you just came out for a season or two, you will definitely be missed!

To the underclassmen, you have shown a great deal of dedication and guts this season. You have sewn the seeds of success, and you shall reap the benefits down the road. It’s an investment in next season, an investment in the future of the program, and an investment in your own lives.

Thank you to all the families and fans for your never-ending support this year. Our season ended much earlier than any of us wanted, but you’ve had a huge part in our progress. From the meals you’ve provided to the cheers you’ve given from the bleachers every weekend, we appreciate it all.

This truly has been a year of rebuilding and progress. I’m proud of all of you. I asked you to wrestle with pride, intensity, and faith. You all dug deep and you didn’t let me down. It starts in the practice room, where you battled every day for three months, and continues through to the wrestling mats on the gym floor each weekend. The competitive attitude is something I can’t coach; it’s something that you all have to discover for yourselves, and I’m proud that you have done just that.

The competitive attitude, however, will only take you so far. It takes commitment in the off-season to build a team into a championship program. What are you willing to do? That is the challenge I’d like to issue here. Reflect on what you want to accomplish as a Louisburg wrestler and then think about what you’re willing to do to obtain that goal. Off-season wrestling is essential, and I’m calling for you to dedicate some of your off-season to this program.

The last two years have been great, and I’m excited for the many great seasons that will follow! Thank you all for your part in building the new legacy of Louisburg wrestling.

Wildcat Proud!

*"More enduringly than any other sport, wrestling teaches self-control and pride.
Some have wrestled without great skill—none have wrestled without pride."*
