“ONCE YOU’VE WRESTLED, EVERYTHING ELSE IN LIFE IS EASY.” —DAN GABLE

Dear Wildcat Wrestling Family—

What a way to close out the season! This has been the most fun I've had as a wrestling coach, and I want to start things off by saying a sincere "thank you" to everyone involved in the program. The last few years have been humbling, but I knew that with patience, dedication, and hard work, we would be able to bring Louisburg back to the point where we are a competitive wrestling program. And here we are.

There are so many ways to measure the successes of the 2014-15 season. Among them are our team placing 3rd at Fort Scott, Tonganoxie, and Frontier League; placing 2nd at Topeka and Parsons; having a 12-5 dual record; sending 5 wrestlers to the Kansas 4A State Championships; and having 2 seniors recognized as Academic All-State.

To our seniors, thank you for your pivotal role in bringing Louisburg Wrestling to the point we're at right now. Between our seniors, over the past four years they have amassed 136 varsity wins, 777.5 team points, 27 tournament medals, a 31-33 dual record, and 4 individual tournament championships. More importantly than all of these achievements on the mat, you've been captains, big brothers, and mentors to the younger wrestlers on the team. Your dedication and leadership is very much appreciated and you will be greatly missed.

To the underclassmen, I want to share a couple of quotes with you. Brent Metcalf, 2-time NCAA champion for the Iowa Hawkeyes, said, "You're as weak as you want to let yourself be." Anthony Robles, an NCAA champion for the Arizona State Sun Devils, said, "We all face challenges in our lives, but you should never let a challenge become an excuse. What you should be thinking about is what you can do about it." You have choices, plain and simple. Sometimes life deals you a good hand, and sometimes life deals you a poor one. Sometimes you get drawn into a bad spot in the bracket. This season, so many of you have proven that you understand this reality very well and you fought with all your power to overcome the obstacles in front of you.

In our daily lives, we will see evidence of people who choose to be weak or who choose to use a challenge as an excuse for failure. We will also see evidence of people who do the opposite—who choose to be strong or who choose to do something about the challenges in front of them. Which kind of person will you choose to be? Judging by your resilience and attitudes in wrestling, I would say you're likely to make the right choice. When the time comes and you have to choose between weakness and excuses or strength and accomplishment, I'm confident which one you will choose.

To the managers and parents, thank you for your never-ending support. Our managers mopped mats, kept score during matches, took care of inventory, washed singlets, and cheered on the team for three and a half months. Our parents prepared meals, spent countless hours on the road and in gymnasiums, cheered for your victories and cried for your defeats. Wrestlers, I hope you truly recognize and appreciate that these people are one of the most important factors in our team's success.

The question we all have to ask is, what next? Where do we go from here? We cannot rest on our laurels, nor can we ride the coattails of the 2014-15 team. This season is in the books—and it was an incredible ride—but the future is where we should be looking now. Shakespeare called the future the "undiscovered country," and over the last few years, the Louisburg wrestling program has done much to build the program to where it is now. What are your options? I would say that some key factors in our growth have been wrestling Freestyle and Greco-Roman, attending camps such as the Outdoor Challenge Camp in Nebraska, competing in the Sunflower State Games in Topeka, and participating in open mat workouts in the summer. What will you do to keep the momentum going? How will you steer your course through the "undiscovered country"?

It has been such a blessing to work with the folks in this community, and I thank each and every one of you for your support. The Louisburg wrestling family is the best there is, and I couldn't ask for anything more. Thank you for having faith in me as your coach.

Wildcat Proud!

—Coach Bovaird

*"More enduringly than any other sport, wrestling teaches self-control and pride.
Some have wrestled without great skill—none have wrestled without pride."*
